For 25 years, David Lewis has been teaching music appreciation classes throughout San Diego North County through MiraCosta College's Learning is for Everyone (LIFE) program for older adults and the CSU San Marcos OSHER Lifelong Learning Institute.

Lewis was born and raised in Minneapolis, to a musical family. In 1961, the family moved to California and he earned a degree in choral conducting at San Diego State University. He did graduate work with British choral director David Willcocks, founded the San Luis Rey Chorale 40 years ago, and is currently the Director of Music at Trinity Episcopal Church in Escondido.

Teaching older adult students to love and understand all aspects of classical music is his life's passion and he will be taking Carlsbad Newcomer's on a fun and informative journey through time, listening to and exploring historical music of the holiday season.

Newcomers meet monthly on 1st Wednesdays at the Carlsbad Senior Center:
