

Carlsbad Newcomers Club

presents

Prof. Nadine Anne Bopp

"Achieving Sustainability in the Home"

Wednesday, November 1, Carlsbad Senior Center Activity Room
799 Pine Ave., Carlsbad, CA 92008

9:45 a.m. Socializing—free refreshments!
10:15 a.m. Meeting and Presentation
11:30 a.m. Adjournment

Nadine Anne Bopp is a retired college professor who relocated to Southern California from Chicago in 2014. She taught at the School of the Art Institute, Columbia College and DePaul University for 19 years while living in Chicago. She has a BA in Biology and an MLA in Landscape Architecture.

Prior to teaching, Prof. Bopp worked for the Cook County Forest Preserve District as an environmental planner, The Chicago Park District as operations supervisor and performed medical and agronomic genetics research at the University of Missouri.

She currently teaches in the OLLI program at CSUSM and SDSU and does freelance drought tolerant landscape design in the area. She is a life-long environmentalist, vegetarian and enjoys her holistic California lifestyle.

Newcomers meet monthly on 1st Wednesdays at the Carlsbad Senior Center:
Newcomer information: 760.574.7472 or www.carlsbadnewcomers.org

